Making Home Improvements?

Did you know that you often need a permit to make improvements to your home from the park management, City and even State? The City of Chula Vista can assist you in determining what permits are needed. In general, if you are making changes to the exterior of your home the City will need to be involved. Any changes involving the exterior walls of your home are likely going to involve the state. Here are some of the most common home that will need a permit:

- Accessory structures (i.e. swimming pools & garages)
- Storage sheds over 12' by 8', but must always be at least 1 1/2' from lot line
- Landings over 12' by 8'
- ADA ramps
- Removal of existing structures
- Roofs
- New water heaters
- Replacing walls & floor joists
- Fences 7' over 1 1/2'
- RV units if being installed for first time
- Refrigerating/air conditioning
- Installation of wireless (cellular, gas & electric)
